Summer Theatre

Dedication and individuality assisted to form the Mustang Summer Theatre's continued success. In the theatre's fourth season, members sold community patrons for the first time. From the finding of black suits to the falling of closet doors, emerged the play "See How They Run" on July 24, 25, 26. Rehearsals immediately began for the play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner." With the help of an exchange student from Krefeld, Germany, Mischa Honnen, the play was presented to a full house on July 30, 31, and August 1. Summer Theatre's season concluded with a "cool pool party," football games, and a final farewell to an inspiring director, Mr. John Toth. Dir: Mr. John Toth. Asst. Dir.: Miss Claire Saltzstein, Mr. Karl Linden.

Homecoming

Despite the 7:00 p.m. curfews, the bell tolled for the defeated seniors and sophomores, while the juniors emerged with a first place float. The seniors placed second with their float creation: Magilla Gorilla. Orchestra's first place car utilized the movie theme, "Dial M For Murder." "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" prepared by the Senior D.E. took second place in the car competition. Homecoming's "spirit week" stimulated enthusiasm with red and white day, senior cords day, the Chicken Bar-B-Q and the annual bonfire. The long awaited homecoming game against the Lake Central Indians put Munster on top, as the Mustangs tomahawked the Indians 19-0. At half time the band and drill team entertained the massive crowds with "Music to Crown Queens By." Majorettes twirled fire batons as the field's lights dimmed. The slow illumination of the lights caused the crowning of Susie Speelman, 1971 Homecoming Queen, to occur in the dark. The Homecoming excitement prevailed through the dance on the following evening with "The Glards" which hosted 129 couples. Old movie flicks shown on the wall, complimented the dance, as homecoming activities drew to a close.

Fall Drama

The life-like sets and scenery made one think he had come to get a quick taste of that Elderberry wine while only visiting the superb performances of "Arsenic and Old Lace." Mr. Karl Linden, a Munster High School alumni, directed his first Mustang Fall drama. The many weeks of intense rehearsing made the play the most financially successful single show. The stereo-typing of old horror characters Boris Karloff and Peter Loree, made the production even more mustifying and realistic. Dir.: Mr. Karl Linden. Asst. Dir.: Mrs. Sherry Fech. Stu. Dir.: Cheryl Smith.

Winter Activities

As the chill and snow of the winter months set in, Munster High School students dashed from the Senior to the Junior High buildings only hoping that the promised corridor would soon be finished. The swimming and wrestling teams gained more support than the devoted yet defeated basketball team. With the addition of the new McDonald's, students fled there on weekends as a sure cure of the "munchies." As semester finals began, old Munster alumni, who pledged never to return, emerged for a quick final glimpse of good ol' MHS.

Sectionals

School and class spirit reached an all time low during sectional week. Annual "red and white" and "class colors" day tried to revive spirit, but ultimately failed. Without a pep session class competition depended solely on the class walls and student enthusiasm. Despite apathy from students, class walls were decorated. Freshmen boosted the team with "Fire up Big Red," while Seniors cried "Ask Us if We Care." Although a sign appeared stating that there would be no Junior Wall due to lack of interest, Junior support reflowerished and urged "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." The Sophomores won the spirit trophy with their creation "Put Your Money on the Mustangs" which featured scores of paper money and large dice. Spirit did heighten during the game as hopes for a sectional win were aroused. Unfortunately, Munster bowed to Gavitt in a close first game.

Cleland, P. Little, M. Puncho, K. Gray.

Spring Drama

Three plays, "Lemonade," "The Bald Soprano," and "The Sandbox," imitated the theatre of the absurd for the spring drama, "An Evening of One Acts." Three different directors rehearsing simultaneously and starting sets at the last minute added confusion but hastened the finished product. An audience and cast discussion after the performances helped the stifled "attenders" to understand the themes and actions of each play. Mrs. Fech's favorite line during rehearsals, "You guys could drive me to drink," was no longer heard after the final performances. Directors: Mr. Karl Linden, Mrs. Sherry Fech, Melissa Gilchrist.

Carnival

Small children marveled over the successful spring carnival. The juniors and seniors combined their efforts in sharing various game booths and concession stands. The annual German Club Jail and Science Club's Fish Pond added to the tradition, while new attractions such as the Majorettes' "Spin-O-Prize," Paragon's "Candy Land" and Ice Cream booths, and the sophomores' Puppy Raffle made this carnival more imaginative than previous ones. The day concluded with a dance featuring the "Tatasus."

Musical

Decorated houses and banners across Ridge Road helped to publicize Munster High School's eighth musical performance. Unfortunately, various acts of vandalism hindered early rehearsals, but had little effect on the final performances. "Breakdown," "draining bottles," and Scott Sublett's "If I Were A Rich Man" dance created an atmosphere of relaxation. Another success emerged with cast and crews immensely proud. Cast—S. Sublett (Tevye), S. Bolls (Golde), S. Webber (Tzeitel), L. Waxman (Hodel), D. Cusick (Chava), L. Hanock (Sprintze), M. Bosch (Bielke), S. Cohen (Yente), T. Berke (Yente), J. Gott (Motel), B. Prom

A newly attempted arrangement of the evening's festivities found Prom at the Holiday Inn in Harvey, Illinois. Afterwards, the revelers returned to the high school for Post-Prom. Balmy weather supplemented the evening, as pre-Prom parties introduced the activities. The Bill Thomas Orchestra and the elegance of the ball room created an atmosphere of sophistication. A late buffet-style dinner prompted ravenous appetites. The "All-Star Frogs," surrounded by decorations of fish nets and underwater murals, accented the theme of "Aquatic Illusion." Breakfast's began the Sunday activities while later in the day, Munster Prom-goers invaded every available strip of sand for an exciting afternoon.

Graduation

The disappointment of an indoor, rather than an outdoor graduation didn't dampen the seniors spirit. The 1972 Baccalaureate program hosted the 10th and 11th grade choir, Rev. Gerald Gregg and Rev. Paul Schmidt. Dark and light blue gowns spotted the fieldhouse during the commencement ceremony. Penny Kozeny, valedictorian, gave the opening invocation, while Dave Sarchet, salutatorian, initiated the welcome. The concert choir sang "Anthem For Spring" and "There's Only One" with Marian Meisterling as soloist. Mr. Fech's last remarks choked all, but his supreme handling of Paul McCoy's plastic nose added a note of lightness to the graduating class; the celebration had only begun.

Curriculum

Language Arts

ENGLISH 9—The number one song of the year, "American Pie," was analyzed, science fiction stories were created, and various types of novels were studied. ENGLISH 10—Students chose between four science fiction novels, while student teachers enhanced the course. ENGLISH 11—Juniors wrote term papers, explored man's inhumanity, read poetry, and became acquainted with death. WORLD LITERATURE—Classics were compared and contrasted. MODERN LITERATURE—The course incorporated an investigative study of modern literature. ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH—The main objective of becoming new critics was achieved through an unbiased analysis of certain works. SPEECH 1—Group discussions and individual speeches stimulated constructive criticisms. SPEECH 2—Topics included persuasion, debate, and radio-television units. DRAMATICS—The basic principles of pantomime, and improvisation, a dialect study, and the presentation of memorized cutting comprised the course. JOURNALISM 1—Students produced films after studying film techniques, explored television and radio programming, and learned the principles of yearbook and newspaper journalism. JOURNALISM 2—NEWSPAPER—Soliciting advertising, composing last minute articles, and meeting bi-weekly deadlines resulted in eager anticipation of each issue. JOURNALISM 2—YEARBOOK—The endless frustrations of lost pictures, improperly cropped pictures, and illegible type sheets finally evolved into a yearbook.

Foreign Language

SPANISH 1—Workbook exercises introduced vocabulary and sharpened grammar skills. SPANISH 2—Spanish culture was emphasized with a field trip to the Folklore Ballet of Mexico. SPANISH 3—Classroom conversations revolved around Spanish literature and poetry. GERMAN 1—Memorization of dialogues and vocabulary tests launched German students. GERMAN 2—Dialect skills were strengthened through student tapes. GERMAN 3—Total immersion in the German language broadened awareness of German customs. GERMAN 4—German conversations compared and contrasted teenage customs in the United States and Germany. GERMAN 5—In addition to numerous novels and short stories, individual projects were presented. GERMAN 6—A small class studied German literature and prepared for the college advanced placement test.

Home Economics

CLOTHING 1—Novice seamstresses produced their first garments from easy-to-sew patterns. CLOTHING 2—A study of fabric construction accompanied the sewing of wool garments. ADVANCED CLOTHING—and TAILORING—The completion of five varied outfits improved the girls' sewing skills. FOODS 1—Meals prepared in class incorporated members of the four Basic Food groups. FOODS 2—Consumer buying, nutritional facts, and foreign foods were studied. HOME NURSING and CHILD CARE—Upon successful completion of the course, students were issued certificates from the American Red Cross. FAMILY LIVING—The implications of the Space Age on the homemaker of tomorrow were examined.

Social Science

INTRODUCTION to SOCIAL SCIENCE—The individual, his role in society, and how he functions in society were examined. WORLD HISTORY—Students concentrated on the development of Western civilizations and traditions. U. S. HISTORY—Classroom seminars debated and discussed material presented in lecture. U. S. GOVERNMENT—Seniors studied national government and then chose four other units of related government studies. SOCIOLOGY—Seniors studied society and the interactions of people within that society. ADVANCED U. S. HISTORY—Individual students excelled in particular eras of U. S. History. ADVANCED GOVERNMENT—Students simulated political conventions and developed their opinions on China in a research paper. ADVANCED SOCIOLOGY—Small student seminars explored social disorganization, juvenile delinquency, and the population explosion. ECONOMICS—Topics included formation of businesses, GNP, circular flow of the economy, and the stock market. PSYCHOLOGY—Basic principles of behavior development, personality, and learning processes were explored through the use of simulations, group discussions, simple experiments, and highly stimulating lectures.

Science

BIOLOGY—Freshman paced themselves through units including cell biology, genetics, and conservation. ADVANCED BIOLOGY—Seniors pursued the course by arranging their own curriculum. CHEMISTRY—A thorough introduction to general chemistry was supplemented by some mathematical treatment of the fundamental theories of modern chemistry. GENERAL SCIENCE—Earth, physical, and life sciences were studied, with attention given to current environmental and ecological problems. PHYSICS(PSSC)—Intense lab work and classroom studying encompassed the fields of optics, waves, mechanics, electricity, and atomic structure. ADVANCED CHEMISTRY—Selection of laboratory reports and seminar reports prepared students for college chemistry. ADVANCED PHYSICS—The relativity and quantum theories were thoroughly examined. HEALTH and SAFETY—Classes explored the effects of tobacco, alcohol, and narcotics, mental health, and the systems of the body.

Summary

Business Education

GENERAL BUSINESS—The course explained the everyday functions of business and the enterprise system. TYPING I—Students mastered the keyboard and mechanics of typing tabulations. TYPING II—A minimum speed of 45 words per minute was the main objective. TYPING III—Vocational typing was emphasized. TYPING IV—Typing mailable letters from various types of businesses was stressed. SHORTHAND I—Students practiced producing mailable letters and developed their speed. SHORTHAND II—The course emphasized proper English usage and office habits. BOOK-KEEPING—The analysis of financial statements climaxed the course. BUSINESS LAW—The study of judicial procedure was culminated with a student written mock trial. SALESMANSHIP AND MARKETING—All areas of selling and marketing were covered. DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION—Students maintained a job in the community, which was supplemented with classroom instruction. CLERICAL PRACTICE—The course acquainted students with office procedures and business machines. COOPERATIVE OFFICE PRACTICE—Students worked at "training stations" and devoted one hour a day to discussions.

General Education

CADET TEACHING—An orientation program was followed by an actual teaching experience. DRIVERS' EDUCATION—The summer course combined lectures, behind-the-wheel driving and in-the-car observation.

Physical Education

BOY'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Fitness testing introduced and concluded the year, with Curetan and seasonal sports interspersed. GIRL'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Girls progressed from team sports to developing individual skills in recreational sports. ADVANCED PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Members of girls' varsity teams polished individual and team efforts. DRILL TEAM—A newly established class provided practice time for the perfection of weekly routines.

Fine Arts

ART I—Aspiring artists experimented with fundamental techniques. ART II—The course involved further experimentation with oil painting, watercolors, and silkscreens. ART III—Techniques in woodcutting, watercolors, and intaglios were developed to perfection. ART IV—Individual direction was stressed, as students created and exhibited their own projects. BAND—Selections from pop, classical, modern, and jazz music were played. ORCHESTRA—Performances included classical and popular compositions. CHOIRS—Harmonious voices resounded from the music rooms as each choir developed its own unique sounds. MUSIC THEORY—Traditional theory, harmony, and sight singing were studied. MUSIC APPRECIATION—The course was a study of music and its relationship to the entire field of art.

Industrial Arts

INDUSTRIAL MATERIALS AND PROCESSING—Students became familiar with shop procedures and hand tools. INTRODUCTION TO DRAFTING—Areas studied included orthographic representation, pictorials, equipment usage, and sectioning. POWER I (MECHANICS)—The course provided an understanding of the internal combustion engine. POWER II (ELECTRICITY)—The basic theory of electricity with useful applications was taught. TECHNICAL DRAFTING I—Auxiliary views and revolutions, fastenings, and pattern developments were included in the course. TECHNICAL DRAFTING II—Students developed an entire set of house plans and constructed a scale model house. POWER MECHANICS—Emphasis was placed on the two stroke cycle engines, which were investigated in the laboratory. ELECTRONICS—The course taught the basic theory of electronics and discussed many areas of communications.

Mathematics

GENERAL MATH I—Basic mathematical concepts were mastered. GENERAL MATH II—Emphasis was placed on the individual and practical needs of the students. PRE-ALGEBRA—Students strengthened their mathematics background with basic algebra concepts. ALGEBRA—Students applied basic algebraic concepts. GEOMETRY—Units on basic assumptions, congruent triangles, proofs, and the Pythagorean Theorem were included in the course. ADVANCED ALGEBRA—Deductive reasoning was emphasized with units on polynomials, rational expressions, logarithms and matrices also presented. TRIGONOMETRY—Trigonometric ratios, circular functions, and problem solving were studied during the semester. ANALYTICAL GEOMETRY—The study of two fundamental limits, called the derivation and the integral, and the study of plane and solid Euclidean geometry comprised the course. BUSINESS MATH—Students were acquainted with the practical approach to business problems. COMPUTER MATH—The theories and techniques used in data processing were studied and executed. UICSM 9—Students contributed ideas, principles, and goals, while mastering the structure of mathematics. UICSM 10—The uses of logic and proofs enabled students to examine triangles, parallelism, and the properties of polygons. UICSM II—The puzzling concepts of relations and functions, systems of equations, and logarithms were explained.

Summer Institutors

The United States and Europe provided the setting for new friendships and experiences for selected students. Germany, through the I.U. Honors Program, hosted Eve Andersen, Debbie Croissant, Beth Graff, Mary Ann Jugovic, Craig Rawlins, and Laura Sennett, while Jane Washburn and Susi Speelman spent their summers in Switzerland. The majorettes, Pam Bretz, Pam Hamacher, Janet Satek and Janice Satek, learned new flag routines at the Smith-Walbridge Camp. Lori Altherr, Debbie Cusick, Carol Marden, Chris Sobek, and Janna Smith earned three superior and excellent ratings at ISU's cheerleading camp. Art sessions were attended by Kathy Henke, Pat Proll, Sherry Schultz and Susan Woodward at Ball State and Kathee Bogusz and Marilyn Sansone at ISU. ISU also accommodated Physics students, Greg Mannion, Joe Iorio, Sue Smith, Peggy Tilka and math students, Nancy Chipman, Marian Fetzko, Mary Maxwell, Sharon Miller, and Mary Ellen Forszt attended ISU for chemistry sessions. Jack Denenberg won a photography award at the U. of Minn. journalism workshop. Jill Crary, Leslie Feingold and Jean Stein, also participated in the workshop. Girl's State was visited by Katy Bachman, Sue Smith, and Chris Sobek. Keith Johnson and Dave Sarchet attended Boys' State. Nancy Chipman, Kelly Donnersberger, Marian Meisterling and Sue Webber studied various aspects of music at I.U.

Student Assistants

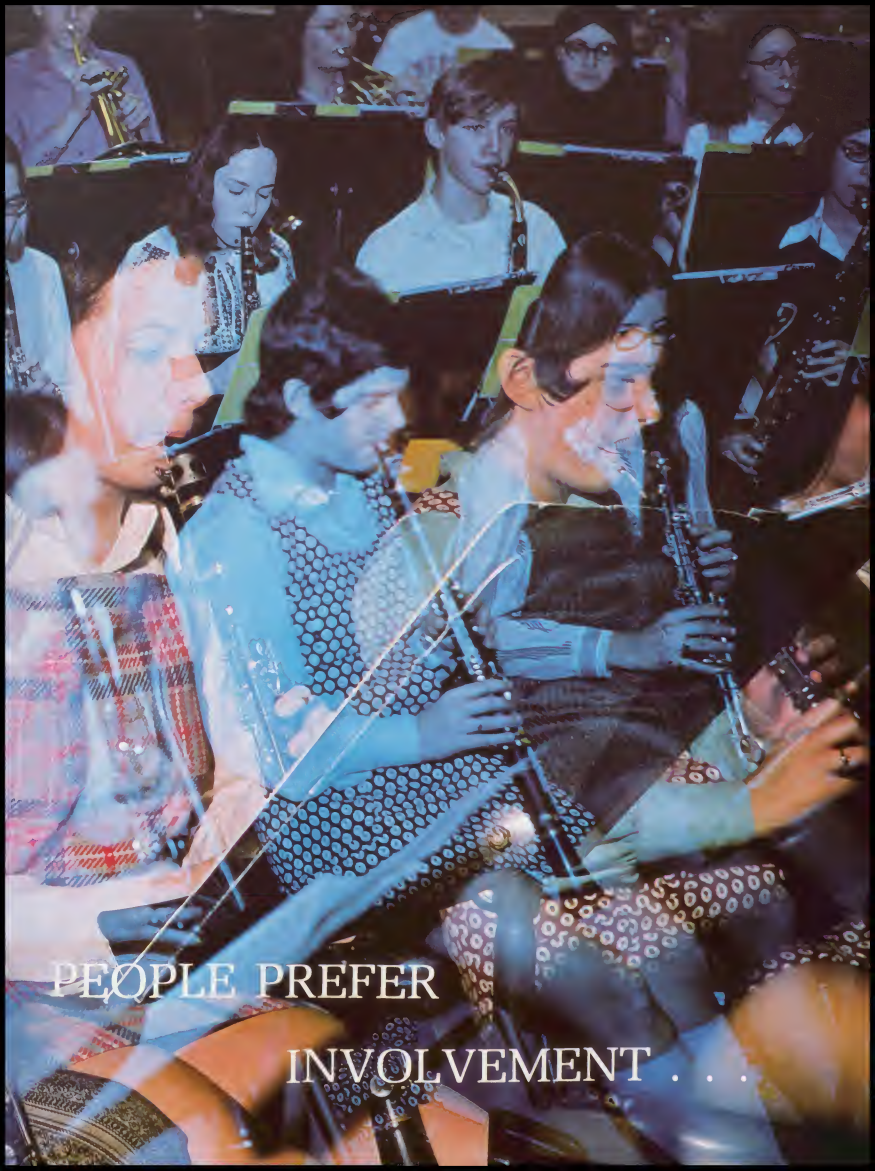

Maintaining equipment in prime working condition occupied the A.V. assistants. Art assistants helped students with projects and kept the art room in order. Biology assistants shouted for silence, graded tests, organized student study guides, and operated film projectors and recorders. Delivering passes from the office and guidance departments comprised the main duties of the office assistants. Books and magazines were checked out under the watchful eye of resource aids. Filling out attendance slips and jotting down test results earned the P.E. assistants one half a credit per semester.

Student Senate

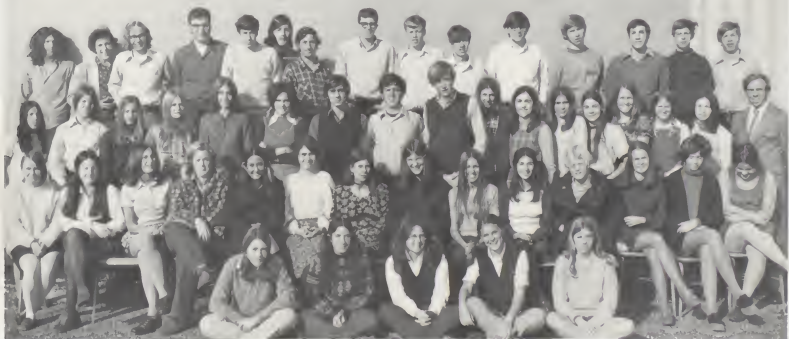

Student Senate's year was one of accomplishment. Members obtained their requests for chocolate milk, a pop machine, and a corridor to be built between the high school and the field house. An experimental driving plan was set up with the Seniors. Once a month, two members from each class participated in exchanges with Highland, Noll, Merrillville, and Lowell. Student Senate sponsored homecoming activities, the Christmas Party at Tradewinds Rehabilitation Center, the election for Mr. and Mrs. Scrooge, and the leg contest with the Basketball players. The Senate also ratified a new constitution with a new judicial branch (student court) which will go into effect next year. Sponsor—Mr. Ross Haller.

National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY: As a community project, members made snowmen tray decorations for St. Margaret's Hospital. The student body had the opportunity to attend the performance of "The Diary of Adam and Eve" by the Omega players, which was sponsored by the club. Profits obtained from the play were used to promote leadership and education by awarding two scholarships to deserving seniors. Tom Trent and Sharon Miller were chosen to apply in Washington, D.C. for the International National Honor Society scholarships. Sponsor—Mr. Lloyd Linquist. Officers—Greg Mannion—Pres., Marian Petzko—Vice Pres., Penny Kozeny—Sec., Steve Holajter—Treas. QUILL AND SCROLL: Elimination of winter initiations enabled new members to gain recognition for journalistic achievements at the annual publications banquet. The decision, made by the members, to work on the separate journalistic media rather than to participate actively in the club, made Quill and Scroll strictly an honorary organization. Sponsor—Miss Nancy Kelley.

Speech and Debate

For the third consecutive year the Speech and Debate team took first place in state competition. An overwhelming victory of 14 points was the largest margin ever accomplished by a high school team in the past decade. Senior John Papais helped gain recognition for the Munster team by placing first in two categories. He was the only high school speech member to accomplish a double win in the past 10 years. Senior Mary Bosch also took first in poetry, while Senior Tom Trent captured first place in discussion. Early morning bus rides—"Are we there yet?"—and Barney, the team's mascot, accompanied various meets and victories. The U.S. jury system was the topic of discussion for Saturday debates with various schools. Several students attended a workshop at Purdue University where they gained student legislative skills. Their fourth annual chicken barbeque and a Christmas wrap sale succeeded in earning funds for fees and transportation. Coaches—Mrs. Helen Engstrom (Head, Speech), Miss Pat Frankowiak (Sub-Varsity, Extemp.), Mr. Daniel Bengert (Debate). Officers—Pres.: J. Papais; V. Pres.: J. Cray; Sec.: M. Bosch; Treas.: S. Thespians

Orchestra

THESPIANS: Mustang Summer Theatre, Mr. John Toth's final production at M.H.S., initiated another year for the International Thespian Society Troupe No. 2861. A new director with new ideas, "we all have to learn together," distinguished this year's Thespian activities. "Willard," a Homecoming float disappointment, did not dampen future goals. The fall production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" constituted Mr. Karl Linden's first major success. A surprise visit from Mr. John Toth added excitement to the Christmas party. In the spring, Thespians supplemented their season with the performance of three modern one acts. The annual banquet at San Remo's and new initiations concluded another year for the Thespians. Sponsors—Mr. Karl Linden, Mrs. Sherri Fech. Officers—Pres.: Melissa Gilchrist, V. Pres.: Jill Crary. Sec.: Diane Leirer, Treas.: Linda Fort, Scribe: Sue Bolls. ORCHESTRA: The orchestra's eighth year began under the direction of a Munster High alumnus, Mr. Karl Linden. Winning first place recognition in the homecoming parade, their car "Dial M for Murder" provided much confidence for further projects. Ushering at the Van Cliburn Concert and selling candy door to door helped to publicize the orchestra's involvement in music other than just concerts. More experienced players participated in a new group, "The Strolling Strings," which played at all orchestra concerts and at various community benefits. At NISBOVA more than a dozen members placed first and the orchestra achieved a second place in sight reading and performance.

Glee Clubs

9th GRADE CHOIR: Traditional 9th grade girls and boys glee clubs were combined to form one group. The choir performed at both Christmas and Spring Concerts, but was unable to attend the NISBOVA contest. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg. 10th GRADE CHOIR: Although small in number, the club attained a second place rating at NISBOVA. At Christmas the choir performed "Ceremony of Carols," accompanied on the harp by Mrs. Joe Huges. They also entertained at the annual Spring Concert. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg.

10th and 11th Grade Choir

Numerous choir members continued the "Gorilla Choir" tradition. Large in number, the choir sang at the Christmas concert performing "Jazz Gloria," accompanied by a bass, trumpet, and percussion. They also participated in the annual Spring concert and the NISBOVA contest, where they received a second place rating despite participation in class A competition. The year ended with their performance at Baccalaureate. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg.

Concert Choir

This year's Concert Choir did not seem to satisfy expectations. The choir entertained at the Christmas Concert with their performance of Messiah, accompanied by the orchestra. They also sang in the Spring Concert, the NISBOVA contest in Hammond, where they received a second place rating, and at Commencement exercises. Director—Mr. Richard Holmberg.

Ensembles

All the vocal groups improved considerably this year. Their talent brought forth many requests from different organizations to perform, some of which they had to turn down. Girls' Sextet, Girls' Ensemble and Boys' Ensemble all received a first in region and in state contests, while Mixed Ensemble only received a first in region. Mixed Ensemble disbanded after contest, as a result of schedule conflicts, however, many of the members participated in the other vocal groups. Directors—Mr. Gene Fort, Mr. Richard Holmberg.

Aviation, Medical Club

AVIATION: Interest in the aspects of flying materialized into a new club. The Aviation Club sent for some sample contest models, displayed model aircrafts in the commons and held a successful Pepsi sale. Plans were formulated to design and build a full size glider. Sponsor—Mr. Ron Tyner. Officers: P. Cress—Pres., T. Watson—Vice Pres., K. Mehok—Treas., MEDICAL CLUB: The new Medical Health Club replaced future Nurses' Club by broadening their goals and plans to encompass the whole medical profession. A lollipop sale with a giant lollipop raffle succeeded in making profits for plans to visit the Indiana Medical Center and Chicago hospitals. At Christmas, bean-bags, made by the club, brought happiness to the pediatric ward at St. Margaret's Hospital. Sponsor—Miss Chris Bieliki.

Stage Band Pep Band

STAGE BAND: A simulation of the "Big Band Era" was the focal point for this year's Stage Band. Being an extra-curricular organization, Stage Band was extremely selective in choosing its members. Aside from The Spring Concert and "String of Pearls" dance the band performed and toured for many community organization dinner dances. PEP BAND: Under the direction of Mr. David Carmony, the volunteer Pep Band played at home basketball games and pep rallies. Pep Band managed to revive spirit in Mustang fans even when a loss was close in sight. Introduction of elementary students to the fundamentals of playing a band instrument and participation in Lansing's Good Neighbor Parade were unrecognized sides of the Pep Band. Band Dir.—Mr. David Carmony.

Marching Band

MARCHING BAND: This year for the first time two drum majors assisted "coach" in preparing for the Halloween and Christmas parades. Half time at home games entertained the crowds with polished formations to the tunes of "Super Star", 25 or 6 to 4", "Sloopy," "Puppet Man" and various Christmas songs. A formation of the letters U.S., made the "Discovery America" show one of the most valuable half times of the season.

Cheerleaders

Despite the intense heat while attending camp at Illinois State, the varsity cheerleaders received three superior and two excellent ratings for spirit and action cheers. During halftime at home games, the cheerleaders surprised the fans by throwing miniature plastic footballs donated by community businesses. Serving as boy cheerleaders for the basketball season, Phil Coulis, Todd Donoho, Dave Huebner, Hugh Kuhn, Rob Shupe, and Dave Watson, tried to encourage more team support. The J.V. and Freshman squads furnished the school body with bake sales which provided money for their new outfits. Sponsors: Mrs. Pat Sholts and Mrs. Doris Johnson.

Majorettes

Giving summer twirling lessons enabled the Majorettes to earn money for the Smith-Waldrigh camp where new flag and twirling routines were learned. At the homecoming game the field's lights dimmed as the majorettes twirled fire batons to the appropriate tune of "Light My Fire." A class period gave the majorettes time to prepare for home games and parades throughout the Calumet Area. New dimensions to the tunes of "Tom-mie" and "Sweet Georgia Brown" reflected the long hours of preparation before their performances. Sponsor: Mrs. Mary Yorke.

Drill Team

Class time set aside for practicing eliminated unorganized performances at games. A larger membership provided for more variety and completeness in routines. Novel costume props such as the clocks, smile faces, cardboard guitars and a Mustang Malt Shoppe brought alive the tunes of "25 or 6 to 4", "Confidence", "I Dig Rock 'n Roll Music", and "Charleston". Pep Club

The apathy of a memberless pep club overturned the school spirit. In revolt to last year's structured pep club, the new officers decided on more of a "free-spirit" organization. The officers sponsored the annual Christmas wreath sale which caused an extensive budget deficit. Smile pins, key chains, and spirit ribbons were later sold to replenish their funds. Aside from planning spirit week activities, the pep club also decorated the players' homes. The Freshman pep club organized preparations for their tourney which included a Christmas card sale and new outfits. Varsity sponsor: Mr. Arthur Haverstock, Freshman sponsor: Mrs. Virginia Schwarz.

G.T.O.

In their second year of existence, the Girls Timing Organization obtained the second largest enrollment of any other Munster organization. Members supported the minor sports of swimming, wrestling, and track by painting signs and decorating the homes of players. Cinder and Matmaids timed during meets and helped the coaches with team records. The mermaids' season concluded with a water basketball party complete with the swim team. Sponsor-Mr. Jon Jepson.

Lettermen

Synchronized Swim

LETTERMEN: An athletics council representing the M-Club was formed to take any grievances to the head coach. The lettermen helped the in-season team by selling programs, sweeping floors, and holding ropes at half-time. A dance with the "Circus" added money to the established funds to help finance the lettermen's jackets. Sponsor—Mr. Mike Niksic. Officers: Keith Johnson—Pres., Rod Clark—Vice Pres., Greg Karas—Sergeant-at-Arms, Phil Coulis—Treas. SYNCHRONIZED SWIM: Swimmers composed and choreographed their own routines for their spring show. An Easter candy sale obtained funds for costumes and decorations which were made for the show by the members. The club sponsored its annual water show entitled "It's a Small World" which featured acts revolving around various countries of the world. Swim team members helped with the show and at intermission M.H.S. divers, coached by Mr. Charles Chelich, performed. The year's activities concluded with a cast party. Sponsor—Miss Marcia Fedorchak. D.E.

The disappointment of a second place homecoming car did not dampen the spirit of D.E. Organized money-making projects such as the Christmas candle sale, the candy sale and a movie for the elementary schools, "Run Wild, Run Free" expanded the group's responsibilities beyond just the operation of the bookstore, "The Joint." Winning regionals then taking fifth in state marked an "official" successful year. Jr. D. E. hosted a picnic at the dunes for the Sr. D.E. members and extended their service by taking "The Joint" into full control by early May. Awards: T. Gower; 2nd place state, Window Display, R. Crier

Previous years of apathy did not hamper this year's CRIER Staff. Tremendous dedication among staff members and new writing techniques were the keys to success. New and different articles won much acclaim from students as well as faculty members. Arousing editorials, interviews with athletes, "Party Place," and unusual photography were only a few of these new additions. Annual carnation and "Whopper" sales accompanied with staff enthusiasm, pulled the CRIER out of debt for the first time. A new precedent, selling newspapers in classrooms at the end of second hour, enabled more students to purchase them. Sponsor—Miss Nancy Kelley.

Paragon

For the third consecutive year PARAGON received an All-American rating by the National Scholastic Press Association. Pizza at Shakey's and a skit by Promotion constituted the Christmas party. A "giant cookie" sale, the annual S.O.S. sale, and bake sales at various community businesses were among the many money-making projects. This year's annual campaign for the yearbook, LIFE, succeeded in selling over one thousand books. Editors and interns struggled through hectic deadlines and various picture problems. An ice cream shoppe and candy wheel at the carnival concluded another fine year with staff members immensely proud. Sponsor—Miss Nancy Kelley. X-Country

Practice evolved into perfection as the X-Country season grew short. A challenging schedule demanded early morning workouts before the sun rose. The Lake Hills Country Club became the "Harriers" home away from home. Although senior injuries and an occasional lack of "warm-up" time before competition added to disappointment, mutual pride between team-mates and Coach R. Dilling's perseverance and encouragement inspired the team to a winning season. Co-Capt's.: Jim Rasch, Rod Clark. Awards: P.H.D.-Scott Sala; M.V.P.-Jim Rasch. "If in doubt, call it out. If you don't want to win, call it in," reflected the attitude of the Munster netmen. The team's mascot, "Buzz's" (C. Bussert) 10 lb. zucchini squash, led the team to a season of victories. This year by placing a second in sectionals and holding the record of 9 wins and 1 loss, the team proved its dedication to long practice sessions. Overall the tennis team's alertness dominated its season since all it had to dodge was "J.C.'s" (J. Rothstein) flying racket. Capt.: D. Kalman. Co-Capt.: J. Rothstein. Awards: M.V.P.—D. Kalman.

Basketball

A year of disappointment engulfed the Mustang cagers as school spirit dwindled to an all time low. Spirit week, including a legs contest, sparked enthusiasm among team members. "Spinner" (R. Clark) was the proud winner for the prettiest legs while "Guber" (D. Oberle) received the award for the ugliest. "Ambrosia" (B. Miller) kept the team alive with his back of the bus Helen Keller jokes. Despite team injuries and frustrations, the cagers stuck together while Mr. Robertson revived attitudes during practices as well as games: "You've gotta want to win, you just can't stand around and expect things to happen—you've gotta make 'em happen." Swimming

The months of September and October brought wealth to the Munster barbers as one by one the seahorses began the season with their annual haircuts. Community business and resident donations supported the swim team's first Swim-A-Thon which earned a $1600 profit used for new pool equipment. Although a fine year record was marred with losses to South Bend Jackson and Adams, school spirit gradually heightened during mid-season as the seahorses ranked high in state. State finals proved to be disappointing with a disqualification in the medley relay and a final 5th place state ranking. Captain-Terry Lavery. Awards-M.V.P.:H. Kuhn; P.H.D.: D. Dietrich. ABOVE: Phil Coulis—Senior wrestler displays his sectional winning form. RIGHT: Dave Watson—While being closely watched for illegal moves, Co-Captain Watson struggles to place in the Conference finals.

Wrestling

Practices strengthened the desire and attitude of the young wrestling team. With the help of only 2 senior team members, the team was 5-5 in conference competition. The Grapplers hot temper, which resulted in many penalties during meets, were cooled with a pillow fight at Culver, Diet Pizza, and a bottle of champagne for the coach on New Year's Eve. "Iron Rod" (M. Wolfe) kept spirit thriving among the "Feast and Famine Club" and after the dreaded weigh-in a feeling of momentary relief prevailed. Coach Bochnowski in his last season with the Grapplers, achieved recognition for the team by sending 3 contestants to regional competition. Co-Capts.—P. Coulis, D. Watson. Awards—M. V.P.: P. Baseball

Controversial tryouts initiated another season for the Munster baseball team. Although playing between raindrops became hectic, "bus ride jokes," and sophomore bat-girls' kept spirits and attitudes rising. Unused basketball shooting gloves became "handy" during cold spring games. Grades and play rehearsals greatly affected team membership. "Big Fred," an avid fan; diving for those fly balls; and "standing room only;" added a lighter side to the team's dedication and struggles. Captain—K. Bumbales, Awards—Golden Glove: R. Nelson; Golden Bat: K. Bumbales; M.V.P.: K. Bumbales; PHD: D. Oberle.

Golf

The season began slowly with little success, but with a record win against Cavit, a remarkable upsweep in the player's attitudes and scores developed. Klug's special K-Mart putter came in handy during close meets and improved his game from a 60 to a low 36 strokes. A profit of $600 from the Golf-a-Thon enabled the team to purchase new golf bags and equipment. Captains—D. Dietrich, T. Peglow. Awards—All Conference: R. Clark, T. Peglow; P.H.D.: T. Peglow; M.V.P.: R. Clark; Best Buzzer: P. Lanman, Longest Driver: B. Girot; Best Putter: G. Klug. Records—L. C. Invitational: 9th; Conference: 1st.

Track

Laughter and high spirits accompanied hard workouts making the track team's many wins seem like sheer potential. Cinder-maids and car trouble diverted the members' attention from the meets, but renting a Herz solved only half of the problem. The team's never ending winning streak brought full unity among its members and the seniors had confidence that strength and success would continue for years to come. Captain—K. Johnson, S. Allen; Awards—P.H.D.: R. Clark, K. Johnson; M.V.P.: S. Allen. Records—Munster Relays: 1st; Chesterton Relays: 2nd; Hammond Relays: 2nd; Clark Relays: 2nd; Conference: 4th; Sectionals: 7th. The 1971 to 1972 school year brought a new face to head the Administration department. Dr. Donald Van Devander, formerly superintendent of the Waukegan school system, wanted to see more individualized instruction with more opportunities in curriculum choice. During the year, administration busied itself completing plans for the new middle school and planning revisions for the high school curriculum. The bomb scare and other acts of vandalism were the only disciplinary problems that involved the staff. Board of School Trustees: Mr. William T. Hensey, Jr. (Pres.), Mr. Donald F. Sands (V. ADULT SERVICE

The clerical staff welcomed a newly acquired coffee pot and duplicating machine. Curriculum changes, applications, questions, and a "Meet Your Counselor Night" kept the guidance department busy. Cupcakes, potatoe chips, and peanuts were only a few of the new items sold by cooks at lunch time. A larger school enrollment increased bus loads for bus drivers and custodial duties.

FACULTY

A new social committee helped to slightly break apart the faculty's small cohesive inner groups by acquainting teachers to others from different areas and departments. Although there were no raises the staff was expanded by three. Many teachers, aside from preparing for classes, used outside time to chaperone dances, form bowling teams, collect tickets at games and meets, and organize their own Halloween and Christmas parties. The annual faculty versus Notre Dame basketball game, Crier's "Party" Place, and Miss Martignoni's wedding added excitement not only to the faculty but also to the student body.

A well united class with much ambition succeeded in either making or breaking the old school traditions. They brought back senior cords, went on a senior trip to California, did not win first place for any of its homecoming floats, had a class picnic at the Dunes, drove to school, and registered to vote. This made the senior class more exceptional than any other in many distinct ways. High football spirit encompassed the group's final unified effort in creating Magilla Gorilla for homecoming proclaiming, "Kong 'Em We're King" and a senior finalee at the final home football game. The senior banquet followed by a dance at the Log Restaurant tied together loose ends before baccalaureate and commencement ceremonies which were held on May 28, 1972.

A united class effort with help from the sponsors attained much recognition for the junior's first place Homecoming float, "For Whom the Bell Tolls." A paradoxical situation occurred during sectionals concerning cooperation, but the juniors pulled through with a second attempt, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." Prom preparation added enthusiasm with participation on various committees. A car wash, carnival booth, lollipop and candy heart sales were major money-making projects aimed to lower the price of prom tickets. Sponsors: Mr. James Karagianis, Mr. James McIndoo.

Newspaper and paint were the new materials used for the creation of the sophomore float, "Squeazy Rider." Although defeated in Homecoming float competition sophomore spirits and attitudes were not dampened. The class of '74 came back strong and won the sectional class competition with their wall, "Put Your Money on the Mustangs," which featured large dice and scores of paper money. Sophomores ordered class rings and sponsored various bake sales. The selling of Mustang mugs, a puppy raffle at the carnival, and a Sadie Hawkins turn-about dance revealed the sophomores continual originality.

Although a lack of funds prevented the freshmen from having a homecoming float, the class of '75 concentrated on decorations for the homecoming dance. A Christmas card sale and various bake sales helped increase the class treasury. Despite a near disqualification due to the use of class colors, a large cannon and "Fire-up Big Red" was featured on the frosh sectional wall. Class unification was weak but first attempts revealed possible future potentials.

PEOPLE OFFER COOPERATION . . .

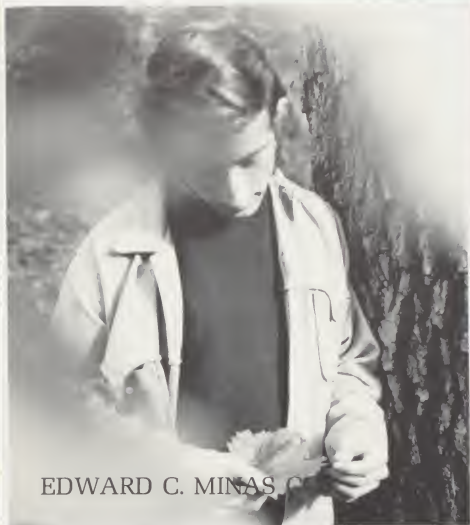

YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND

(Written by Carole King)

When you're down and troubled and you need a helping hand
And nothing, nothing is going right
Close your eyes and think of me and soon I will be there
To brighten up your darkest nights
You just call my name and you know wherever you are
I'm coming to see you again
Winter, summer or fall, all you've got to do is call
And I'll be there you've got a friend
If the sky above you should grow dark and full of rain
And that north wind should begin to blow
Keep your head together and call my name out loud
Soon I'll be knocking upon your door
Ain't it good to know that you've got a friend
When people go down and
They'll hurt you and desert you
They'll take your soul if you let them
But don't you let them

PARAGON SPECIFICATIONS: The 1972 Paragon was printed by Paragon Press in Montgomery, Alabama, on 80 lb. "Calais" paper. The 10-column, mosaic and Look-Life layout styles were combined to form the basic page plan, except in the prologue and epilogue where a modified modular style was used. The book has two pica inner margins, and outer margins of three, four and five picas.

The copy style was designed to identify each spread with a label head (36 pt. Melior) and page label (8 pt. Melior). Combined captions (8 pt. Melior) for each page describe each picture. Body copy (10 pt. Melior) containing history of events begins with one line of mood copy (12 pt. Melior).

S.K. Smith of Chicago, Illinois produced the cover of red leatherette Ovotone with a completely new grain pattern and an embossed figure. Rainbow color was used in the opening and on dividers which are double exposure pictures with special tint screens. Photography was done by Root Photography Studios in Chicago, Illinois and student photographers of the Paragon Staff.

In the Athletics section, varsity scoreboxes were printed in overburn and reverse over the team pictures. Junior Varsity and Freshman scoreboxes overburned on pictures of 30% screen. The Personalities section incorporated candid pictures, mug shots, and verticle heads (30 pt. Melior). An 8 pt. line outlines the candids and heads. Blocks of a 100% black reverse and 4 pt. lines combine to create a distinct design in the Advertising section. The names of advertisers (18 pt. Melior) were printed in either overburn or 100% black on the respective pictures. The heads (18 pt. Melior) were written as phrases which formed sentences and thus unified the section.

The cover, prologue and epilogue, and dividers emphasized the theme of People, showing the individual emerging from the crowd.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: Paragon 1972 is the creation of its entire staff aided by special people we wish to thank. . . Mr. and Mrs. Richard Washburn for housing our homecoming float. . . Mr. and Mrs. John Barth, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bogusz, Mr. and Mrs. John Fetzko, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Jugovic, Mr. and Mrs. Arris Kontos, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Schoop, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stine for hosting deadlines. . . Athletic board composed of seniors. . . Kiwanis Club of Munster, Mr. Kenneth Soshy, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shinkan, and Renwald's for helping the Promotion Staff with its projects. . . Mr. Bernard Hill for his cooperation in picture taking. . . Johann's for last minute trophies. . . Mr. George Kingsley for making a special effort to answer all of our questions. . . Mr. Bob Jones for help in creating a color divider design and the opening section. . . Mr. Jack Bundy for originating the idea for the cover design. . . Linda Hammond for art work on the cover. . . Miss Marge Gonce, Mrs. Ina Silverman, Mrs. Horlick, and Mrs. Rincon for allowing the use of the general "Pub" area and for handling our finances, phone calls, and mail. . . Dr. Donald VanDevander for his sincere interest in our book. . . and Mr. James Baydwin, Mr. George Kurteff, Mr. John Tennant and our advisor Miss Nancy Kelley for cooperation and patience in allowing the staff to create its own book.

As production of the 1972 Paragon began, we established three goals. The basic ideas communicated by these goals laid the framework for the organization of the staff and book. Although at times they seemed unattainable, the challenge these goals presented provided an asset to the entire staff.

According to the staff's basic organization, each individual is directly involved with a specific area of production. This year in addition to his individual responsibilities, each staff member was encouraged to take part in other aspects of the book. We believe that a unified staff effort results in a unified book.

Munster High School is noted for its tradition of excellence. Previous Munster yearbooks have gained national recognition, and with the format of this book the Paragon staff sought to live up to this tradition. Its contents reflect all aspects of pride in excellence at Munster High.

We feel that a school is no more or less than the people in it. With the theme "People" Paragon 1972 focuses on the individual and his involvement in the group. The entire staff worked together to present a complete picture of people of MHS. People are the basis of Munster High School and of Paragon 1972.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1998. The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 5.5 million women employed in the public sector in 1998, compared with 4.5 million in 1980.

There is a growing emphasis on the importance of the public sector in providing services to the community, and in particular in providing services to the elderly. The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people with disabilities, and in particular of people with mental health problems. The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people from ethnic minority backgrounds, and in particular of people from the Caribbean and South Asian communities.

The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people who are unemployed, and in particular of people who are long-term unemployed. The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed, and in particular of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed because of their mental health problems.

The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed, and in particular of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed because of their mental health problems. The public sector is also becoming an important employer of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed, and in particular of people who are at risk of becoming unemployed because of their mental health problems.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1 million (Office for National Statistics 1999). The number of people aged 85 and over has increased by 0.5 million.

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop services to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on three main principles: to ensure that older people are able to live independently, to ensure that older people are able to participate in society, and to ensure that older people are able to live in comfort and security.
